Message from the Clerk

Beloved Friends –
Welcome!

As I have held our Yearly Meeting in prayer over the past year, a simple phrase keeps rising up: Choosing Love. As we gather this week, and as we hold and are held by those who cannot physically be with us, let us choose Love.

A fierce tyrant once was taking over new land, running people out of their homes, people fleeing in fear. But one peasant would not leave, and was not interested in the soldiers' threats. When the tyrant heard of this refusal, he himself tore into the home of the peasant and towered over him, brandishing his sword and roaring, "Don't you know you're looking at a man who could run you through without blinking an eye?!"

The peasant gazed at him evenly. "And don't you know you're looking at a man who could be run through without blinking an eye?"

The tyrant lowered his sword and left, having recognized that the man was connected to a greater power—the power of that transforming Love that brings freedom from fear, freedom from despair, freedom from everything that separates and diminishes us. The tyrant could not kill the man because there was no one there to kill; he was living somewhere that is at once deeply within the world and far from it, without self and without fear.

Like the Israelites fleeing the Pharaoh, turning on Moses in fear, crying, "Why did you make us leave Egypt?! We should have stayed! We would have been slaves but we would be alive!" I experience times when the promise of freedom seems impossible, and when I feel attached to my chains, because they are part of my identity. And even when I am brought to the mountaintop and get to look over, and see and hear and smell the crazy beauty of the promised land, I still slide back down to what I know, because of the attraction of the familiar. What would true freedom look like, and feel like—and demand? For this Love is not a cute, fluffy love, but it is vigorous, earthy, and strong.

In our times of worship and discernment together, let us seek immersion in and submission to that Love that transforms and frees us. With divine assistance, let us accept the Love that yearns for us, that seeks to heal our brokenness and connect us in deep relationship. As we live more deeply into that Love, those things that separate us lose their hold, and fall away.

While we live in community this week, let us choose Love. We can ask ourselves, Am I choosing Love in this situation? Let us choose joy, and hope, and trust. Let us assume that all intentions are for the good. With great tenderness let us help someone up when they stumble, even—or especially—when their stumbling hurts us. Let us be kind, remembering that we cannot know what inner struggles torment each person we encounter. Let our hearts stay soft. Let us love each other, and the stranger, and ourselves. And let us see what Love can do.

In loving friendship,

Heather M. Cook (Chatham-Summit Meeting)

Clerk's Tea

The Clerk's Tea (new this year!) is happening on Sunday from 4:00–5:30 and again on Wednesday from 6:00–7:00. This informal gathering provides an opportunity to welcome newcomers, and those who feel like newcomers, and those who like to welcome newcomers. It's a chance to make connections and to ask questions and start sorting out the sometimes baffling world of Summer Sessions and our Yearly Meeting.

All are invited to both teas, which will take place in Gullen Lounge, in the northern end of the Inn.

PROGRAM NOTES

Welcome to NYYM Summer Sessions at Silver Bay

Besides the events listed in this program, Silver Bay YMCA of the Adirondacks has its own schedule of activities, which can be found in their publication, The Breeze. Please observe all Silver Bay rules and requirements.

Badges are required on campus. The name badges provide a good way to start conversations with people of any age, particularly those with a blue dot on their name badges. These people are first-time attenders at Summer Sessions.

Questions about residential rooms are directed to the Silver Bay desk.

Questions about Yearly Meeting services, facilities, program, or program rooms should be directed to the New York Yearly Meeting (NYYM) conference office in the Inn lobby or the Junior Yearly Meeting (JYM) office in the upper Boathouse.

Meals on Campus

Badges are used in place of meal tickets. All meals are cafeteria style.

Those staying off-campus may buy meal tickets at the Silver Bay desk, singly, at least one meal before you expect to eat in the dining room.

Those wanting the meal package for their entire stay must purchase it on arrival.

Those who want a box lunch on Saturday must place orders at the Silver Bay desk by Thursday at 1:00 P.M.

Announcements

Use the NYYM Minute each day for announcements such as program changes or special events. Items should be placed in the Minute box at the NYYM conference office by 6:30 P.M. for the following day; they must be signed and previously checked for accuracy, legibility, and availability of facilities.

For emergency announcements, check with John Cooley, clerk of the Sessions Committee. Do not use the cafeteria microphone.

The Community

Clerk Heather Cook and Assistant Clerk Joe Garren will meet Monday through Friday for worship with the expanded Liaison Committee (which consists of the clerks of the four sections, reading and recording clerks, general secretary, and a representative from JYM). We will hold in prayer each day how the Spirit is moving in the community and the prepared business coming before the meeting that day. Please address questions about the agenda to the clerk of the Yearly Meeting or the appropriate coordinating clerk: Ministry, Julia Giordano; General Services, Jeffrey Aaron; Nurture, Cheshire Frager; Witness, Fred Dettmer; and JYM, Peter Close.

The Coordinators

Messages for coordinators can be posted on the bulletin boards outside the NYYM conference office. JYM coordinators Ginny Haines and Susan Stillman are available at the JYM office in the upper Boathouse. They welcome your offers of help, suggestions, and inquiries.

The Silver Bay liaison is Martha Gurvich. Contact her with any questions about facilities or about food.

The Sessions Committee, which planned the week, is clerked by John Cooley. Committee members have red dots on their name badges. They will be glad to help you. Please ask them.

For use of audiovisual aids during committee or interest group times, consult Martha Gurvich. It is necessary to clear use of both space and equipment in advance.

For questions about displays, check with the NYYM conference office.

Regina Haag, our off-campus coordinator, can be contacted with concerns of off-campus participants.

The NYYM Minute editor is Barbara Von Salis.

Friends with special physical challenges may contact Ron Inskeep.

The 12-Step program coordinator is Boyce Bengé. The golf cart coordinator is Carol Rice.

To schedule additional committee or group meetings, contact the NYYM conference office for time and space.

For medical problems, consult the Silver Bay nurse. The nurse's office is on the first floor of the Inn at the end of the north wing, next to room 140. Hours are 7:00 A.M. to 7:00 P.M. weekdays. (Check with the Silver Bay desk if the nurse is not in the office.) A nurse is on call 24 hours a day for emergencies.

Message Center

Friends at the NYYM conference office will help provide information. Messages can be left on the bulletin boards opposite the conference office, at the bottom of the stairs. Everyone is asked to check frequently for messages.

Requests for committee photocopies should be made only at the NYYM conference office, by the clerk of the requesting committee. It is important to take leftover reports and papers with you when you leave the campus.

The NYYM conference office is not open during meetings for worship with a concern for business. A sign will be posted to inform you of when the conference office will be open.

Meetings in the Auditorium

Please try to arrive early, settling into worship in preparation for meeting for business. We ask that you come to the front of the auditorium for seats with better acoustics. If you wish to speak, after being recognized by the Clerk please wait for the microphone before beginning to speak. Bells ring at the beginning of meals and at the end of worship sharing and Bible study.

Visiting Friends are asked to give their names to the NYYM conference office and to indicate which session will be their first one, so that the Yearly Meeting Clerk can welcome them.

Committee Meetings

In general, visitors are cordially invited to all committee meetings, but they are asked to respect the agendas and, should they have matters to discuss, inform the committee clerk before the meeting starts.

Junior Yearly Meeting

Regular groups meet daily, Monday through Friday, 8:45 A.M. to 12:15 P.M. Young Friends are assigned to groups according to the grade they are entering in the fall.

The JYM office is located in the upper Boathouse. Look for the signs!

Parents, guardians, and sponsors have responsibility for their children and must register at the JYM office after registering with Silver Bay. At registration, each JYMer receives a schedule of group activities (there are extra copies for parents) and can refer to this throughout the week. The schedules and other important information are posted in the JYM office in the upper Boathouse.

All youth 10 years and above are welcome to participate in interest groups. The upper High School group sponsors the Thursday evening Café Night.

A childcare program for children up to age 10 will be available Monday–Friday afternoons and some evenings, depending on parent volunteers. A schedule will be posted at JYM Registration, as well as a sign-up for parents to help out. JYM will coordinate volunteers to supplement the Silver Bay staff in their preschool morning program at the Children's Pavilion, 8:30 A.M. to noon Monday to Friday.

JYM needs volunteers to create a fun-filled environment. Please come to the JYM office to learn how to volunteer.

Each day parents should pick up their preschool through 3rd grade children before 12:00 noon at their group meeting places. Everyone is welcome at the community worship in the Auditorium from 12:00 to 12:15.

JYM coordinators Ginny Haines and Susan Stillman are available in the JYM office between the hours of 8:45 A.M. and 12:15 P.M. every day. JYM staff meetings are held each morning at 7:00 A.M. in Morse Hall.

The Book Table

Members of the Committee for the Expenditure of the H.H. Mosher Fund invite browsing and buying.

Early Evening Events

Bible study will be 6:45–7:30 P.M. Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday. This year, our leader for Bible study will be Jim Atwell of Butternuts Meeting.

Informal singing will be from 6:30 to 7:30 P.M. in front of the Inn.
